4 hotels in the heart of the city

P rime location in the heart of events, rich history and immaculate service - welcome to THE hotels of the city. For over a century, the hotels in the centre of Ljubljana have helped shape the history of the city. Home away from home for numerous celebrities, businessmen and urban explorers, and venue of choice for events that make history, they still remain an important hub for the life of the capital.

The Union Hotels group comprises four hotels - Grand Hotel Union, Grand Hotel Union Business, Hotel Lev and Central Hotel - located in the very heart of Ljubljana. Altogether the group offers 574 elegantly furnished hotel rooms of the various categories and 30 conference halls and meeting rooms with modern technical equipment.

Whether our guests are royalty, film stars, politicians, business guests or families, the quality of our services is always on the highest level.

HISTORY

The grand opening of the Grand Hotel Union in 1905 was in fact grand - a 7-day ceremony. Designed by architect Josip Vancaš in Art Nouveau style it was the first modern hotel in Ljubljana, built in only 18 months under the supervision of Viljem Treo. When finished, the hotel, located on the border between the Baroque and the more modern Art Nouveau part of the city, was the highest building in Ljubljana and, due to its intricate 100-metre long façade, complex iron roof and lavish interior decoration, a great architectural achievement. In the 60s and 70s, the hotel was extended and Holiday Inn – today Grand Hotel Union Business was built.

In over a century, the hotel hosted many famous people, among them Orson Welles, Bill and Hilary Clinton, Dalai Lama and Queen Elizabeth II.

Just a stone's throw away, in the place of the popular Pri Levu restaurant, another luxury hotel grew by 1964. The modern building was conceived by Emil Medvešček and, to honour its predecessor, named Hotel Lev (Lion). The combination of supreme hospitality and exquisite cuisine quickly made the hotel popular among business as well as leisure guests around the world. So there is no wonder that the book of guests features Agatha Christie, Louis Armstrong, Bob Dylan, Sting, Claudia Schiffer, Luciano Pavarotti, Ivo Pogorelich, 50 Cent, Valerij Gergijev and Zubin Mehta to name just a few.

The youngest in the group is Central Hotel - a smaller, cosy hotel, built in 1975.

Since 2012, the four hotels in the very centre of Ljubljana are united in a group under the name Union hotels.
